

Evie Wexler Plofsky

Education:

Southern Illinois University
Master of Arts Degree, 1988
Major: Early Childhood Education
Carbondale, IL

Southern Illinois University
Bachelor of Science Degree, 1981
Major: Early Childhood Education
Carbondale, IL

Professional Experience:

Governors State University
Early Childhood Department Faculty,
2000-Current
University Park, IL

Anita M. Stone Jewish Community Center
Early Childhood Director, 1989-2003
Flossmoor, IL

Southern Illinois University Rainbow's End Child Care Center
Early Childhood Director, 1985-1989
Carbondale, IL

Southern Illinois University Rainbow's End Child Care Center
Preschool Teacher, 1981-1985
Carbondale, IL

Professional Involvement:

Member, National Association for the Education of Young Children, 1985-Present
Member, Student Education Association, 20015-Present
Member, Kappa Delta Pi International Honor Society, 2015-Present
Member, Chicago City-wide Jewish ECE Conference Committee, 1996-2002
Co-Chair, Chicago JCC ECE Directors Committee, 1996-2000
Founding Member, Homewood-Flossmoor Preschool-Primary Partnership, 1994-2003
Vice President, Southern Illinois AEYC, 1988-1990

Presentations/Workshops/Publications:

"What To Do When Parents Want Kindergarten Readiness and Kids Just Want to Have Fun", South Suburban AEYC Conference, Governors State University, 1999.

"Developmentally Appropriate Practices in the Preschool Setting" National AEYC Conference, Anaheim, CA, 1995

"Creating Meaningful Intergenerational Programs", National AEYC Conference, Washington, DC, 1990.

"Creative Activities Using Home Materials" Parent Workshop, Department of Children and Family Services, Carbondale, IL, 1986.

"Preschool Experiences to Promote a Peaceful World", Teacher Workshop, Southern Illinois AEYC Conference, Carbondale, IL, 1986.

The Rainbow Connection: An Intergenerational Program booklet by Mylan, E. and Lutzker, Sandra Zabel, 1984.